

Sunday 12th January 2025

TODAYS SONGS

- By Faith
- Facing a task unfinished
- Holy Spirit Living breath of God
- O church arise
- In Christ alone

BIBLE READING Isaiah 59:15-21 page 656

SERMON - Rob Parson from Wooler Evangelical church
Ephesians 6: 10-20 page 1039

NEXT WEEK – 10.30am Martin preaching on 1 Peter 2

PRAYER POINTS

1. Praise God for his understanding of our battle against the world the flesh and the devil
2. Praise God that he gives us everything we need to stand firm
3. Pray that we would trust and have confidence in God's good provision for us that we would be bold and courageous as Christians and as His church, knowing that we have his protection, pardon and provision.

Sunday 12th January 2025

TODAYS SONGS

- By Faith
- Facing a task unfinished
- Holy Spirit Living breath of God
- O church arise
- In Christ alone

BIBLE READING Isaiah 59:15-21 page 656

SERMON - Rob Parson from Wooler Evangelical church
Ephesians 6: 10-20 page 1039

NEXT WEEK – 10.30am Martin preaching on 1 Peter 2

PRAYER POINTS

1. Praise God for his understanding of our battle against the world the flesh and the devil
2. Praise God that he gives us everything we need to stand firm
3. Pray that we would trust and have confidence in God's good provision for us that we would be bold and courageous as Christians and as His church, knowing that we have his protection, pardon and provision.

SPACE FOR YOUR NOTES ON Ephesians 6

SPACE FOR YOUR NOTES ON Ephesians 6

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Where do we currently feel most under attack, personally and as a church?
2. Which of the pieces of armour, including prayer, do we tend to neglect, and why?
3. How does this passage bring comfort and confidence to the Christian life?
4. How do these items of armour help us in the issues raised in question 1?
5. There is a danger of making everything a fight, as well as the opposite of running from every fight. Which way do you tend to lean towards, and how can this passage help us get a balance?

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Where do we currently feel most under attack, personally and as a church?
2. Which of the pieces of armour, including prayer, do we tend to neglect, and why?
3. How does this passage bring comfort and confidence to the Christian life?
4. How do these items of armour help us in the issues raised in question 1?
5. There is a danger of making everything a fight, as well as the opposite of running from every fight. Which way do you tend to lean towards, and how can this passage help us get a balance?