"Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

Hebrews 3:7-8

TODAY'S SONGS

My Hope Is Built On Nothing Less

My Worth Is Not In What I Own

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

Come Thou Long Expected Jesus

Psalm 112

BIBLE READING – Mark 6:14-26 (pg 892) and Luke 23:6-9 (pg 937)

SERMON – 1 Samuel 28 (pg 259) | Martin Smith

NEXT WEEK – 1 Samuel 29 | Martin Smith

PRAYER POINTS

- Praise God that in Christ we have exactly the King we need, who faithfully and bravely obeyed God.
- Praise God that He has kindly and clearly spoken to us in Jesus.
- Pray that today, as we hear His voice, we wouldn't harden our hearts.
- Through the week, take time to pray over the matters covered at the QBM, not least the proposed members and the ongoing building renovation.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Saul turned very quickly to a wicked source of help. To which wrong places can we sometimes turn instead of taking God's help?
2. How can we help each other have tender hearts and willing lives when it comes to God's Word?
3. Saul and Herod are not unique. How do we see poor response to God's Word earlier in life lead to not hearing Him well later in life?
4. Have a look over Psalm 112 in light of Saul's failings. What in this Psalm stirs gratitude in your heart for Jesus?
