BIBLE READING – 1 Samuel 29-30 (pg 259)

SERMON – 1 Samuel 29-30 (pg 259) | Martin Smith

NEXT WEEK – 1 Samuel 31 | Martin Smith

PRAYER POINTS

- Praise God that, in Jesus, He has rescued His people.
- Praise Jesus that, though he alone won the battle, He freely shares the blessing with us.
- Pray that God would help us to trust His sovereign hand to work all things for His glory and the good of His people.
- As we conclude 1 Samuel next week and begin Matthew in December, pray that through His Word, God would make us very glad in His King, Jesus, and that as we rejoice in Him, we would spread His renown.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. How has 1 Samuel helped you to see “how great a salvation” and indeed, how great a Saviour, we have?
2. Take some time to think through how dark things would be (even in the story of David) if God wasn’t in control and working out His good plan.
3. Can you think of any circumstances that God has surprisingly used to save and/or to sanctify you or Christians you know?
4. How does seeing God’s sovereign and saving hand in the strange events of David’s life and Jesus’ rescue mission help us to trust Him in our days, when sin and suffering often loom large?
