

Welcome to

1 FEB
2026

"He answered, 'It is written: Man must not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Matthew 3:17

TODAY'S SONGS

All My Ways Are Known To You
My Heart Is Filled With Thankfulness
Psalm 19:7-11
Lord I Need You
My Hope Is Built On Nothing Less

BIBLE READING – 1 Corinthians 10:1-13 (1017)

SERMON – Matthew 4:1-11 (pg 857) | Martin Smith

NEXT WEEK – Matthew 4:12-25 | Martin Smith

PRAYER POINTS

- Please pray for Frank's funeral on Friday, asking that God's grace in and through Frank would be celebrated and that Frank's hope would be clearly preached.
- Praise Jesus for His perfect life of righteous obedience, which has allowed Him wash away our sins and make us righteous.
- Pray that, by His Spirit, Jesus would help us to live more and more righteously in this world of tests and temptations.

SPACE FOR YOUR NOTES ON MATTHEW 4:1-11

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Why did we need Jesus to become truly man, be truly tempted, and yet truly not sin? (Read Hebrews 2:5-18).
2. In which ways do Satan's efforts with Jesus remind us of how he tempted others in the Bible/tempts people today?
3. Jesus battles sin and Satan swinging the sword of the Spirit. How could you better know and use God's Word in your walk through the wilderness?
4. How might the example of Jesus' success in the wilderness (Matt 4:1-11) and the warning from Israel's failure in the wilderness (1 Cor 10:1-13) work together to motivate us when tempted?