PRAYER POINTS

- Praise God for our Priest-King Jesus, who has brought God's presence and blessings to us.
- Pray that we would follow Jesus' lead in worshiping God faithfully, fearfully and fervently.
- Pray for a growing understanding that we live before God and that we would live to please Him and not others.
- Praise God that the King is returning to lead us into God's presence and praise in the new Jerusalem.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

- 1) In this passage we see David improve and Michal worsen. How do their examples prompt you to keep growing in the knowledge and love of God?
- 2) God takes Himself, His worship and His Word seriously. How can we strive to know God and His ways better through His Word?
- 3) Whether it's in a church service or in worshiping God with our lives, how are we helped by seeing Jesus as the Priest-King who leads us in worship?
- 4) Where might our sacrifice for the Lord look stupid to others? What holds us back from being passionate and radical in our service of King Jesus? What would propel us forward?
