God's glory and your good.

(vs 8-11)

"It would seem that our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea.

We are far too easily pleased."

The People's Response

REPENTANCE

Build God's house, not your own, because God's glory is your greatest good.
