*“He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree;
so that, having died to sins, we might live for righteousness.
By his wounds, you have been healed.”*

1 Peter 2:24

NOTES

PRAYER POINTS

- Praise God that we live in a better kingdom and under a better king than David.
- Praise God that he has dealt justly with our sin, without us having to face what it justly deserves.
- Pray that, as a church family, we would be increasingly dead to sin and alive to God in righteousness.
- Pray for those in our church who have suffered much and experienced little justice in the world, that God would grant patience and grace in them until the day when He comes to work final and perfect justice.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. The sinful desires of both of David's sons were left to fester and their sinful deeds were not addressed. How can we as a church help each other address sin at both these stages?
 2. Are there areas of your heart, mind and life where sin needs to be uprooted and righteousness planted in its place? Talk through the process of putting sin off sin and putting on righteousness clearly so that you might better do it.
 3. We sometimes struggle with psalms that speak of God's justice on His enemies. How does a story like 2 Samuel 13 remind us of the goodness of justice?
 4. What would help HBC to be a better home to people who are guilty Amnons and victims like Tamar?
